

2017-2018 STUDENT-LED CONFERENCES

Lake Middle School
Tuesday March 13th AND
Thursday March 15th

At the end of this presentation you will have ideas on...

- How to conduct student-led conferences.
- How to communicate academic information and your goals to your parent(s)/guardian(s).
- How your involvement plays a direct role in your academic success!

Student-Led Conferences...

- Allows YOU to see and communicate the progress you are making.
- Encourages YOU to evaluate your own work and effort.
- Encourages YOU to have a vision for YOUR future and set goals.

- Enhances YOUR ability to communicate effectively.
- Helps build YOUR self-confidence.
- Helps YOU identify and focus on YOUR strengths, interests and hobbies.

WHY???

Student led conferences reflect the belief that YOU should be actively involved in YOUR learning and assume responsibility for the learning process.

- Increases YOU and YOUR parent(s)/guardian(s) participation in conferences.
- Moves YOU towards a goal of being a life long learner.
- Showcases YOUR student work.
- Encourages YOU to advocate for YOURSELF!

TUESDAY 3/13 or THURSDAY 3/15 STUDENT LED CONFERENCE!

Student Led Conference PROCEDURES

- 1. When you arrive with your parent/guardian, you will pick up your SLC folder.
- 2. You will then move to the tables in the middle of the gym/cafeteria and sit with your parent/guardian.
- 3. You will review the documents you've prepared in your SLC folder.
- 4. After reviewing your binder with your parent/guardian, IF you have questions or need further clarification regarding your performance in any of your classes you are invited to meet with your teacher(s) in the gym or cafeteria.

We have a lot of preparation and organization to do... BUT

We will learn a lot about ourselves and will have fun doing it!

Good Luck Preparing for Student-Led Conferences!
